

Spring Lake Park Reserve

Welcome to Spring Lake Park Reserve. This park is a rest stop along the 3,000-mile Great River Road and offers miles of bluff-top trails with a bird’s-eye view of the Mississippi River. Bison have been re-introduced to the park reserve in the Bison Prairie at Fahey Trailhead and along the Mississippi River Greenway. The bison herd rotates paddock locations and current location updates can be found on the Bison Prairie webpage.

Spring Lake Park Reserve is part of Dakota County Parks.

Admission and parking are free.

Park features

- Bison viewing
- Schaar’s Bluff Gathering Center and Retreat Center with Group Camping (both open year-round)
- Wooded archery trail (open late spring–fall)
- 4 miles of nature trails for hiking
- Mississippi River Greenway
